Linking Disciplines: The Key to

INCREASED ENTERPRISE SECURITY

Securing the enterprise, whether large or small, requires all parts to work together. Please join us for our next Dean's Speaker series event as internationally recognized information security experts, Dr. Diana L. Burley and Mr. Kenneth R. van Wyk, discuss their views on linking two historically separate disciplines, information security and software security—as well as taking a holistic view towards developing the cyber security workforce—as being the key to increased enterprise security on our software, networks and services.
